The QKR is an association that deals only in mutual member funds, and is not obliged to charge GST to members on membership fees etc. A receipt will be issued; this portion of the form will be returned with the receipt. A tax invoice/receipt will not be issued unless requested from the treasurer.

For your information the Renmei provides members with the following services.

- Up to 2 seminar and grading opportunities per annum.
- Access to and where appropriate training as coaches.
- Public Liability, Professional Coaches Indemnity and Player Injury Insurance.
- Via your AKR affiliation fee, affiliation with the National and International organisations governing our arts.
- Access to National level competition and seminars in the arts of Kendo, Iaido and Jodo.

The AKR purchases public liability, professional indemnity, and player injury insurance cover annually at considerable annual cost to its members. The benefit of this cover is only available to members of the Renmei. Non AKR/QKR members training at a Club that are not covered by this policy.

Grading opportunities are only offered to financial members of the AKR and QKR or to financial members of an IKF affiliate that can prove they are eligible to grade. To be eligible for a Dan grading, members must have been financial members of the Renmei for at least the minimum years required for eligibility immediately prior to presenting for the grading as per AKR Manual of Document.

The AKR Standard Grading Rules can be found Here.

Failure to maintain membership may result in delays to grading eligibility.

If you have any questions or wish to discuss variations to this schedule of fees, please feel free to contact the QKR executive about this matter at QueenslandKendoExecutive@qkr.asn.au
